

YOUR Easter 'Sport' Guide

town Easter weekend

The Peter O'Sullivan Lambourn Open Day has attractions for all ages late comebacks.

Barlow's Park is a great non-league ground, and a lovely spot to watch football on a sunny day.

If racing is more your thing though, you're in for an Easter treat on Good Friday.

The Peter O'Sullivan Lambourn Open Day is returning for 2025.

This is a unique opportunity to visit Lambourn Valley trainers' yards and come face to face with the horses and trainers, along with their staff and jockeys.

Go behind the scenes at the yards of Nicky Henderson, Ed Walker, Jamie Snowden and many more.

Yards are open from 9am until 1pm, with parking available in and around Lambourn. There are attractions for all ages, as well as a silent auction.

Tickets are just £15, while under-12s go free.

Full details are available at lambournopenday.com

There's also the much-loved Devizes to Westminster Canoe

Race to look forward to over Easter.

The climax of day one on Good Friday will see the participants finish at Newbury's Northcroft Leisure Centre.

They'll set off the next morning, as the race proceeds to Marlow.

The race has taken place since 1948, with paddlers travelling 125 miles and navigating 77 locks until they reach Westminster in the heart of London.

Further details can be found at dwrace.co.uk
