WE will remember them...

Here is our guide to Remembrance Services in your area this year.

NEWBURY: 10.30am: The parade will leave Pelican Lane and march along Northbrook Street.

The mayor, David Harman, will take the salute in Mansion House Street, before a Remembrance Service will take place in Market Place.

Wreaths will then be laid at the War Memorial on the way into St Nicolas Church. Service sheets will be available on the day and also available to download from the Newbury Town Council website.

Friends of Newtown Road Cemetery Group also invite the public to join them at the cemetery on Saturday, November 8, for a Remembrance welcome event from 10am to noon.

There will be a tour and commentary of the Commonwealth War Graves by Steve Schollar at 10.30am.

Also available is a Find-a-grave service to help relatives researching their family histories, and displays within the cemetery chapel illustrating its history and recording the history of the people buried there.

On the morning of Tuesday, November 11, a group from St Bartholomew's School will visit Newtown Road Cemetery.

Headteacher David Fitter, accompanied by three students from Davis House (named after Alexander Davis), and six cadets from the school's Combined Cadet Corps will say a few words and then lay a wreath on the Alexander Davis gravestone.

THATCHAM: The parade starts at 10.30am from the Kingsland Centre car park, loops around Thatcham Broadway and up the High Street to the War Memorial. The mayor, the Rev Mark Bennet and the Royal British Legion will lead the service at the War Memorial. After the main wreath laying, members of the public will be invited to lay their own tributes.

A smaller service for Armistice Day will be led by the Royal British Legion on Tuesday, November 11, from 10.45am at the War Memorial.

All are very welcome to attend the short service which will take place on Thatcham Memorial Gardens. The service takes place at 11am and if you wish to attend please ensure that you are at the garden by 10.55am.

10.30am: The Remembrance parade will start at 10.30am at the Kingsland Centre car park, loop around Thatcham Broadway and up the High Street to the War Memorial.

A smaller service for Armistice Day will be led by the Royal British Legion on Tuesday, November 11, from 10.45am at the War Memorial.

On Saturday, November 8, there will be an Act of Remembrance and wreath laying at 3pm at Waterside Park. The mayor will be in attendance. A Thatcham Royal British Legion standard bearer will be there and a member of the Cold Ash Brass band will play Last Post and Reveille. Mascots on the day will be Thatcham Tornadoes under 8 girls.

HUNGERFORD: Services will take place from 9.30am at St Lawrence Church.

The parade, led by the Hungerford Town band, leaves the Market Place at 10.45, arriving at the War Memorial in Bridge Street for the Service of Remembrance.
